"Large diaphragm condenser microphone of compact size with cardioid polar pattern. The ECMS-60 from IMG STAGELINE is a particularly space-saving microphone which is very well-suited for mounting onto a stand. It provides a flawless sound for this price class: low noise, well-balanced and a great level of detail. The microphone is of neat workmanship and features a well-dosed proximity effect.

Who is it for(tm) It is suitable for beginners up to semi-professionals who are looking for a compact microphone for solo parts and podcasts."
